Ana Lilja-Vazquez Named Superintendent's Student of the Month for January 2018

The Savannah-Chatham County Public School System recognized Ana Lilja-Vazquez at this month's board meeting as the Superintendent's Student of the month of January. Our featured student is in sixth grade and attends the STEM Academy at Bartlett.

Ana is described as a student who is diligent in her schoolwork and knows the importance of time management. Outside of school, she is active in the Savannah Children's Theater.

She is a High Honor Roll student and a member of the Duke University Talent Identification Program. Ana says, "I am motivated by the promise of being able to go to a good college and the feeling of pride I get accomplishing a hard task."

We are proud to announce the Superintendent's Student of the Month for January 2018 is Ana Lilja-Vazquez! Congratulations to our student, her family, and the faculty and staff of the STEM Academy at Bartlett!
