School accreditation is based on artifacts provided by each school to serve as evidence to support the continued adherence of policies, procedures, and standards required for accreditation. The Georgia Accrediting Commission also requires each school to successfully fulfill the requirements of an on-site accreditation visit. Failure to comply with policies, procedures, and standards required to maintain school accreditation is considered grounds for modification and/or withdrawal of the accreditation status.

The Georgia Accrediting Commission commends your school system and offers continued support to each school in the pursuit of excellence at the elementary and secondary level.

Sincerely,

Executive Director
