

Reading on Grade Level Numeracy on Grade Level

Thomas B. Lockamy, Jr., Ed.D., Superintendent

M. Ann Levett, Ed.D., Deputy Superintendent and Chief Academic Officer

Vallerie Cave, PhD, Executive Director of Elementary K8 School Governance

Kimberly Hancock, Executive Director of Elementary K8 School Governance

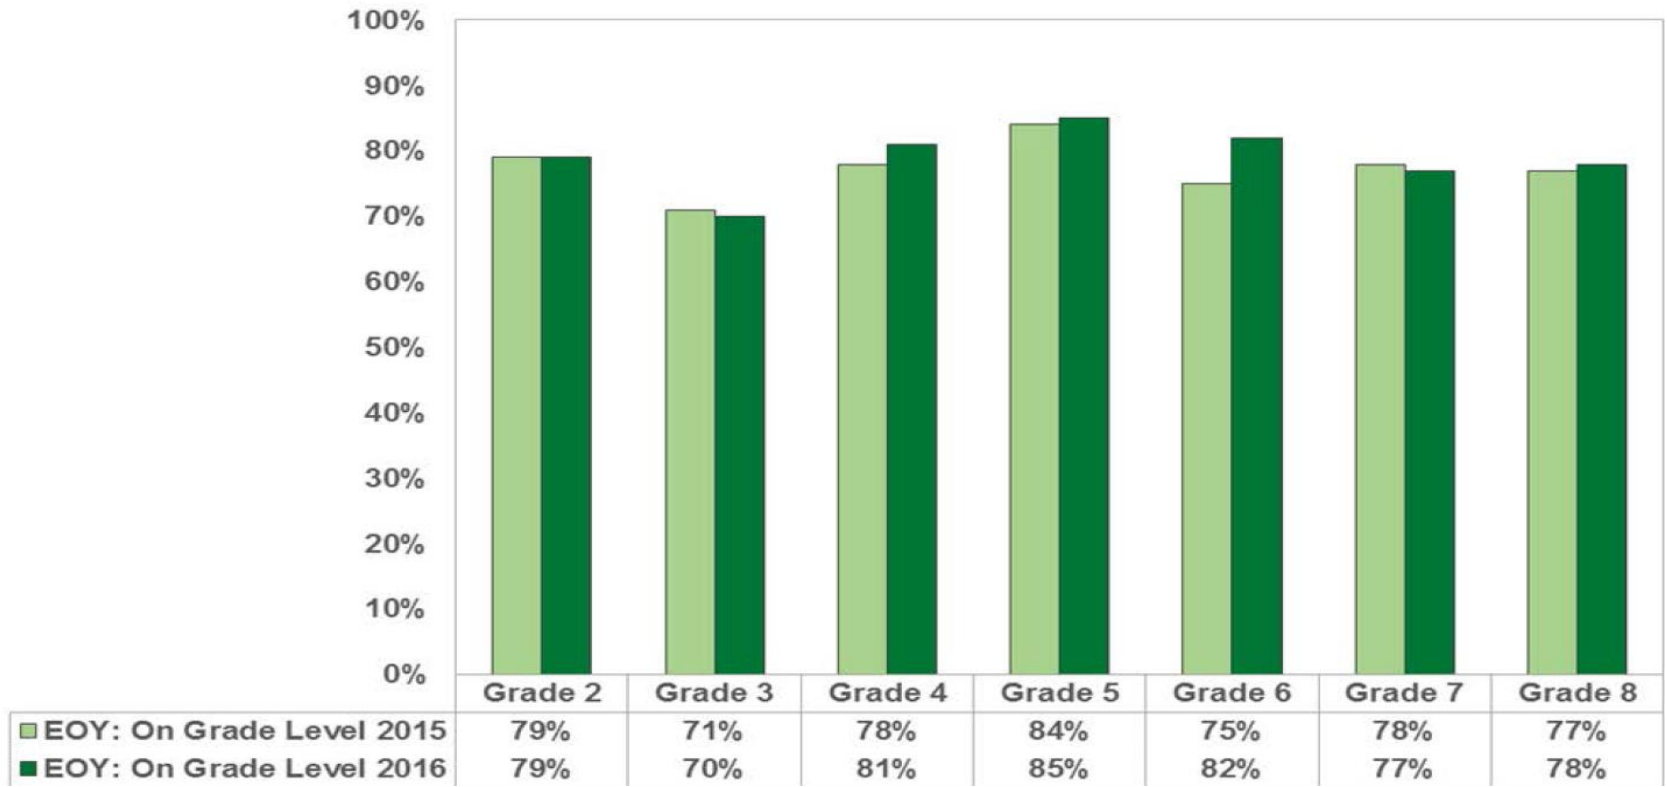

Objective, Baseline & Target
Reading on Grade Level (ROGL)
Numeracy on Grade (NOGL)

Strategic Goal 1, Objective B1: To improve literacy and numeracy outcomes for grades 2 through 8 to ensure that students acquire grade-level skills needed for success at the next grade level.

ROGL & NOGL Targets: SY 2019-20	Grade 2	Grade 3	Grade 4	Grade 5	Grade 6	Grade 7	Grade 8
Reading on Grade Level	85%	75%	83%	88%	80%	82%	83%
2019-20 Target Lexile Score	345L	545L	645L	745L	830L	885L	940L
Numeracy on Grade Level	80%	76%	75%	77%	72%	72%	78%
2019-20 Target RIT Score	186	198	207	215	219	224	227

Reading on Grade Level (ROGL) District ROGL Rates

Figure 1. Students Reading on Grade Level: 2015 & 2016 End of Year (EOY)

 Students in grades 4, 5, 6 and 8 improved between one (1) to seven (7) points compared to last year.

Reading on Grade Level (ROGL) District ROGL Rates

Figure 2. Students Reading on Grade Level: Beginning of Year (BOY) to End of Year (EOY)

Students in grades 4, 5, 6 and 8 improved between one (1) to seven (7) points compared to last year.

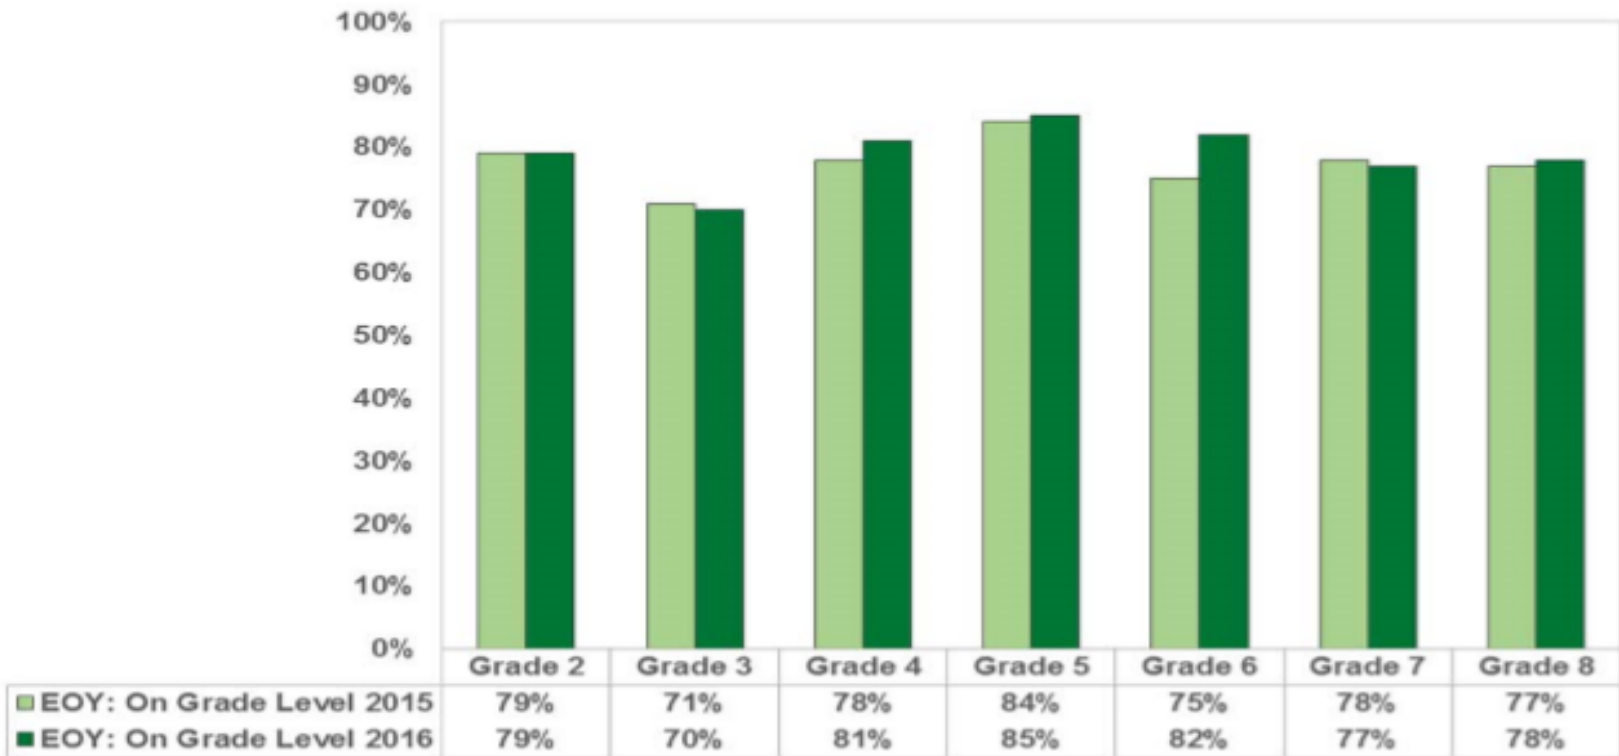

Reading on Grade Level: Notable
Achievements

- Haven students achieved double digit gains at all grade levels, with improvements exceeding 30 points in grades 3, 4, and 5.
- Bloomingdale, Butler, Gould, Hodge, Largo-Tibet, Juliette Low, Pooler, Shuman, and White Bluff improved by 10 points or more in at least one grade level.
- Middle schools surpassed the SY 2019-20 target in grade 6.
- Bloomingdale, Butler, Gadsden, Gould, Haven, Heard, Howard, JG Smith, Largo-Tibet, Low, Marshpoint, Pooler, Pulaski, West Chatham, White Bluff each exceeded the SY 2019-20 target in one or more grade levels.
- K-8 schools were at/above the SY 2019-20 targets for grades 4, 6, 7 and 8, with nearly all K-8s at/above target in at least one grade level.
- East Broad, Georgetown, Hesse, and Isle of Hope achieved double-digit gains in one or more grade levels.

Numeracy on Grade Level (NOGL) District NOGL Rates

Figure 1. Students Reading on Grade Level: 2015 & 2016 End of Year (EOY)

SY 2015-16 Numeracy on Grade Level rates ranged from 64% in Grade 7 to 73% in Grade 2.

Numeracy on Grade Level (NOGL) District NOGL Rates

Figure 4. Students Numeracy on Grade Level: Beginning of Year (BOY) to End of Year (EOY)

Students in grades 4, 6 and 7 increased between one (1) to six (6) points when compared to last year.

Numeracy on
Grade Level:
Notable
Achievements

- Spencer's 3rd graders - improvement of 36 points.
- Double-digit Gains- Brock, Butler, Haven, Heard, Hodge, Shuman, Thunderbolt, West Chatham, Spencer.
- K8 schools were at/above the SY 2019-20 numeracy targets for middle grades.
- Georgetown and Godley Station exceeded the targets at all grade levels tested.
- Met or exceeded SY 2019-20 target in one or more grade levels- Bloomingdale, Gadsden, Heard, Howard, JG Smith, Marshpoint, Port Wentworth, Pooler, Pulaski, Southwest, Spencer, West Chatham, and Windsor Forest.
- All middle schools either improved or maintained the prior year's 6th grade numeracy rate.
- Southwest Middle 6th graders increased their numeracy rate by 23 points compared to last year.