8.2 Evaluation and Selection Process

Technical Evaluation Review Committee members will use a standard form to evaluate all responsive Statement of Qualifications (Proposals) submitted by responsible Offerors and document their review and evaluation of each Offeror in accordance with the criteria listed below. The Technical Evaluation Review Committee will select at least three (3) Offerors deemed to be reasonably susceptible for award. In its discretion, the SCCPSS may decide that oral interviews and additional evaluation is unnecessary, and the SCCPSS may proceed to rank the Offerors deemed to be reasonably susceptible for award using the evaluation criteria set forth below. In that case, the Superintendent or his designee may proceed to negotiate a contract with the highest ranked Offeror to recommend to the Board of Education. If the highest ranked Offeror and the Superintendent (or his designee) cannot reach agreement as to the terms of a contract to recommend to the Board of Education, then the Superintendent may attempt to negotiate with the next highest Offeror determined to be reasonably susceptible for award (and so on) until a proposed agreement to present to the Board of Education acceptable to Superintendent (or his designee) is reached. No contract will be awarded until the Board of Education votes to approve the award. The SCCPSS reserves the right to cancel this solicitation and re-advertise for the same good and services using a similar or different solicitation process at any time up until the Board of Education approves a contract with an Offeror.

In its discretion, the SCCPSS may determine that, after reviewing the initial Statements of Qualifications (Proposals) it would be beneficial to interview the Offerors determined to be reasonably susceptible for award and/or require them to submit additional materials. If oral interviews and/or additional materials are requested from the Offerors determined to be reasonably susceptible for award, they will be notified of the criteria by which oral interviews and/or additional materials will be evaluated. The SCCPSS may simply re-evaluate the Offerors using the criteria set forth below or it may use different evaluation criteria. After a final ranking is made by Technical Evaluation Review Committee, the Superintendent or his designee may proceed to negotiate a contract with the highest ranked Offeror to recommend to the Board of Education. If the highest ranked Offeror and the Superintendent (or his designee) cannot reach agreement as to the terms of a contract to recommend to the Board of Education, then the Superintendent may attempt to negotiate with the next highest Offeror determined to be reasonably susceptible for award (and so on) until a proposed agreement to present to the Board of Education acceptable to Superintendent (or his designee) is reached. No contract will be awarded until the Board of Education votes to approve the award. The SCCPSS reserves the right to cancel this solicitation and re-advertise for the same good and services using a similar or different solicitation process at any time up until the Board of Education approves a contract with an Offeror.
