

LIFT EVERY VOICE COMMUNITY OPEN HOUSE

NATIONAL MUSEUM of
AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY & CULTURE

Join Massie Heritage Center as we collaborate with several Savannah area cultural organizations and sites to honor the community's African American History, in partnership with Smithsonian Institution's National Museum of African American History and Culture (NMAAHC).

SATURDAY, AUGUST 18TH, 2018 - FREE ADMISSION

- Premier of 40 Acres and a Mule short film featuring a discussion with the local film makers, Fritz and Lorrie Rumble, at 2 p.m. in the Heritage Classroom

SUNDAY, AUGUST 19TH, 2018 - FREE ADMISSION

- Chief Ulysses Bryant will talk about growing up during segregation in Savannah and about his experience integrating Savannah High School in 1963 at 1 p.m. in the Heritage Classroom
- Larry "Gator" Rivers, retired Harlem Globetrotter, will speak about the role of basketball during Savannah's Civil Right's era at 2:30 p.m. in the Heritage Classroom

A Unit of the Savannah-Chatham County Public Schools | www.massieschool.com

