

SUMMER CAMP AT MASSIE HERITAGE CENTER!

Art Through The Ages

Explore Savannah's history through art!

Campers will enjoy making arts and crafts from different historical periods following Savannah's artistic past from the Creek and Cherokee to Modern Art. Field-Trips include the Jepson Center for the Arts and SCAD Museum of Art. The camp will culminate with a gallery show produced by the campers!

(Rising K through 3rd grade students)

Session One: June 6 - June 10 9am-3pm

Session Two: June 13 - June 17 9am-3pm

Digging History

Bring history alive! In this hands-on camp, participants will learn how archaeologists uncover the past, will participate in a simulated "excavation," and will discover all the archaeological treasures of the Georgia coast.

Students will visit local archaeological sites, including Coastal Heritage Society's Battlefield Park and Wormsloe State Historic Site.
