

Name _____

Identifying the Point of View

Directions: Read the following sentences. Underline the sentences that are written in 1st person in blue and underline the sentences written in 3rd person in red.

1. Gabe the Giraffe was a lot of fun. He liked to play chase and hide-n-seek with the other animals. He is particularly fond of hop scotch. If you would like you can come play with him.

2. I am, Miranda, and I just got a new bike for my birthday. My friend Jessica and I can now ride our bikes to school instead of that stinky, hot school bus.

3. Amber enjoys reading books. She goes to the library each Saturday to check out two books that she can read for the next week. Her mother and father encourage her reading passion.

Name _____

4. I am the American Flag. I fly high above many important buildings throughout the United States. People stand and salute me while reciting the Pledge of Allegiance. When bad things happen in our country I am lowered to half-staff. I am a valuable symbol of the freedom of America.

5. John washed up onto a deserted island after his boat sank in the middle of the Indian Ocean. He lost everything with his boat. John hoped that someone would find him soon because he knew nothing about surviving on a deserted island.

6. I am a car hop at Jesse's Drive-In. I love my job. I get to wear roller skates and serve delicious milkshakes. My favorite milkshake is the triple chocolate banana with whip cream.

Name _____

Identifying the Point of View Answer Key

Directions: Read the following sentences. Underline the sentences that are written in 1st person in blue and underline the sentences written in 3rd person in red.

1. Gabe the Giraffe was a lot of fun. He liked to play chase and hide-n-seek with the other animals. He is particularly fond of hop scotch. If you would like you can come play with him.

2. I am, Miranda, and I just got a new bike for my birthday. My friend Jessica and I can now ride our bikes to school instead of that stinky, hot school bus.

3. Amber enjoys reading books. She goes to the library each Saturday to check out two books that she can read for the next week. Her mother and father encourage her reading passion.

Name _____

4. I am the American Flag. I fly high above many important buildings throughout the United States. People stand and salute me while reciting the Pledge of Allegiance. When bad things happen in our country I am lowered to half-staff. I am a valuable symbol of the freedom of America.

5. John washed up onto a deserted island after his boat sank in the middle of the Indian Ocean. He lost everything with his boat. John hoped that someone would find him soon because he knew nothing about surviving on a deserted island.

6. I am a car hop at Jesse's Drive-In. I love my job. I get to wear roller skates and serve delicious milkshakes. My favorite milkshake is the triple chocolate banana with whip cream.