

Name _____

Sick Day

I feel achy

I feel icky

I feel yucky

Why, oh why! Do I have to be sick?

My fever is getting higher and higher.

I wish my immune system was a better fighter.

I have coughed so hard that my chest aches.

Nothing helps me feel better except....

My mom's cupcakes.

Name _____

Sick Day

Name: _____ Date: _____

Directions: Read the poem and answer the following questions.

1. What is the perspective of the narrator of this poem?

1st person

2nd person

3rd person

2. What had the narrator done so much of that made her chest hurt?

Sneezed

Hiccapped

Coughed

3. What does the main character think will make her feel better?

Medicine

To go to the doctor

Cupcakes

4. Write the next stanza of this poem but write it in 3rd person.

Name _____

Sick Day

Answer Key

Directions: Read the poem and answer the following questions.

1. What is the perspective of the narrator of this poem?

1st person

2nd person

3rd person

2. What had the narrator done so much of that made her chest hurt?

Sneezed

Hiccapped

Coughed

3. What does the main character think will make her feel better?

Medicine

To go to the doctor

Cupcakes

4. Write the next stanza of this poem but write it in 3rd person.

Answers will vary. It is important that the student's response uses the correct 3rd person pronouns.